

RISING PHARMACEUTICAL INNOVATION IN THE GLOBAL SOUTH: PAINTING WITH NEW COLORS

Quiz

After reading BRAC University's presentation, answer the following questions:

- 1. In summary, which of the following best describes the current main business model of the pharmaceutical industry in Bangladesh?
 - A: Production of generic medicines for domestic use and exportation profit-centric
 - B: Innovative research and development for the development of novel medicines
 - C: Production of generic medicines to attend to priority health needs health-centric
 - D: Research contract organizations for companies from abroad
- 2. Which sources of funding for conducting research and development activities in the pharmaceutical sector were NOT identified in the research?
 - A: Government funding
 - B: Revenues from licensing proprietary rights to companies from abroad
 - C: Philanthropic funding
 - D: Funding from foreign governments
- 3. Which of the following challenges were NOT identified in the research?
 - A: Limited collaboration between industry and academia
 - B: Limited government support and funding
 - C: Limited investment in research and development from local industry
 - D: Limited collaboration with multinational companies
- 4. TRUE or FALSE. As of April 2023, Bangladesh is excepted from granting patent protection to pharmaceuticals.
 - A: True
 - B: False